BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-728g of Title 63, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

1 As used in this act, unless the context requires otherwise:

2 1. "Conscience" means the ethical, moral, or religious beliefs
3 or principles held by a medical practitioner, health care 4 institution, or health care payor. With respect to institutional or 5 corporate persons, as opposed to individual persons, the term is 6 determined by reference to that entity's or body's governing 7 documents, including but not limited to published ethical, moral, or 8 religious guidelines or directives, mission statements, 9 constitutions, articles of incorporation, bylaws, policies, or 10 regulations;

11 2. a. "Discrimination" means an adverse action taken 12 against, or a threat of adverse action communicated 13 to, a medical practitioner, health care institution, 14 or health care payor as a result of the medical 15 practitioner, health care institution, or health care
16 payor's refusal to participate in a health care 17 service on the basis of conscience, including but not 18 limited to termination of employment; transfer from 19 current position; demotion from current position;
20 adverse administrative action; reassignment to a 21 different shift or job title; increased administrative 22 duties; denial of staff privileges; denial of board 23 certification; loss of career specialty; reduction of 24 wages, benefits, or privileges; refusal to award a

1 grant, contract, or other program; refusal to provide 2 residency training opportunities; denial, deprivation, 3 or disqualification of licensure; withholding or 4 disqualifying from financial aid and other assistance;
5 impediment of the creation or improvement of a health 6 care institution or health care payor; impediment of 7 the acquisition or merger of a health care institution 8 or health care payor; the threat of any of the 9 preceding actions; or any other penalty, disciplinary, 10 or retaliatory action, whether executed or threatened.

11 b. The term does not include the negotiation or purchase 12 of insurance by a nongovernment entity;

13 3. "Health care institution" means a public or private 14 hospital, outpatient center for primary care, medical center, 15 physician organization, professional association, outpatient center 16 for surgical services, private physician's office, pharmacy, long-17 term care facility, medical school, nursing school, medical training 18 facility, or any other entity or location in which health care 19 services are performed. The term includes but is not limited to 20 organizations, corporations, partnerships, associations, agencies, 21 networks, sole proprietorships, or joint ventures;

22 4. "Health care payor" means an employer, health plan, health
23 maintenance organization, insurance company, management services 24

1 organization, or another entity that pays for or arranges for 2 payment for a health care service, in whole or in part;

3 5. "Health care service" means medical research or medical care 4 provided to a patient or client at any time during the patient's or 5 client's course of treatment, including but not limited to initial 6 examination; testing; diagnosis; referral; dispensing or 7 administration of a drug, medication, or device; psychological 8 therapy or counseling; research; prognosis; therapy; record-making 9 procedures; notes related to treatment, set up, or performance of a 10 surgery or procedure; or any other care or service performed or 11 provided by a medical practitioner;

12 6. "Medical practitioner" means a person who is or may be asked 13 to participate in a health care service. The term includes but is 14 not limited to physicians; physician assistants; nurses including 15 but not limited to Advanced Practice Registered Nurses; nurse aides; 16 allied health professionals; medical assistants; hospital employees; 17 employees of an outpatient center for primary care, outpatient 18 center for surgical services, or long-term care facility; 19 pharmacists; pharmacy technicians; pharmacy employees; medical 20 school faculty and students; nursing school faculty and students; 21 psychology and counseling faculty and students; medical researchers; 22 laboratory technicians; counselors; social workers; or any other 23 person who facilitates or participates in a health care service;

1       7. "Participate in a health care service" means to provide,
2 perform, assist with, facilitate, refer for, counsel for, advise 3 with regard to, admit for the purposes of providing, or take part in 4 any way in providing a health care service; and

5       8. "Person" means one or more individuals, partnerships, 6 associations, or corporations.

7       SECTION 2.       NEW LAW       A new section of law to be codified
8 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-728h of Title 63, unless there
9 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

10       A. 1. A health care institution or health care payor may not 11 be required to participate in or pay for a health care service that 12 violates the health care institution's or health care payor's 13 conscience, including by permitting the use of its facilities.

14       2. A health care payor, other than an employer or other entity 15 whose health plan is not subject to the jurisdiction of the 16 Insurance Commissioner, shall list any health care service that it 17 may refuse to pay for on the basis of conscience in the applicable 18 policy.

19       B. Except as provided in subsection D of this section, refusal 20 to participate in or pay for a health care service under this 21 section may not give rise to liability of the health care 22 institution or health care payor for damages allegedly arising from 23 the refusal or be the basis for any discrimination, discipline, or 24

1 other recriminatory action against the health care institution,
2 health care payor, or any personnel, agent, or governing board.

3 C. Nothing in this section may be construed to relieve a health 4 care institution of the requirement to provide emergency medical 5 treatment to all patients set forth in the federal Emergency Medical 6 Treatment and Labor Act, 42 U.S.C., Section 1395dd.

7 D. The immunity provisions of this section do not apply to a 8 health care institution or health care payor owned or operated by 9 this state or a political subdivision of the state.

10 E. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act to the 11 contrary, a religious medical practitioner, health care institution, 12 or health care payor that holds itself out to the public as 13 religious, states in its governing documents that it has a religious 14 purpose or mission, and has internal operating policies or 15 procedures that implement its religious beliefs, shall have the 16 right to make employment, staffing, contracting, and admitting 17 privilege decisions consistent with its religious beliefs.

18 SECTION 3. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
19 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-728i of Title 63, unless there 20 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

21 A. A medical practitioner has the right not to participate in a 22 health care service that violates the medical practitioner's 23 conscience. A health care institution may not be held liable for 24 the exercise of conscience not to participate in a health care

1 service by a medical practitioner employed, contracted, or granted 2 admitting privileges by the health care institution.

3 B. A health care institution may require the exercise of 4 conscience as a basis for not participating in a health care service
5 to be made in writing and signed by the medical practitioner 6 objecting. A writing made under this subsection may refer only 7 generally to the grounds of conscience.

8 C. A medical practitioner's refusal to participate in a health 9 care service based on an exercise of conscience may not be a basis 10 for discrimination, discipline, or other recriminatory action 11 against the medical practitioner.

12 D. A medical practitioner may not be held liable for damages
13 allegedly arising from the exercise of conscience not to participate 14 in a health care service.

15 SECTION 4. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
16 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-728j of Title 63, unless there
17 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

18 The exercise of conscience not to participate in a health care 19 service by a medical practitioner, health care institution, or 20 health care payor may not be grounds for loss of any privileges or 21 immunities or for the loss of any public benefits.

22 SECTION 5. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
23 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-728k of Title 63, unless there
24 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

1       A. A medical practitioner or health care institution may not be 2 discriminated against because the medical practitioner or health 3 care institution:

4       1. Provides, causes to be provided, or intends to provide or 5 cause to be provided information relating to a suspected violation 6 of this act to the medical practitioner or health care institution's 7 employer, the Attorney General, the United States Department of 8 Health and Human Services, or any state or federal agency charged 9 with protecting health care rights of conscience; or 10       2. Testifies, assists, participates, or intends to testify, 11 assist, or participate in a proceeding concerning a violation of 12 this act.

13       B. Except as provided in subsection C of this section, it is 14 unlawful to discriminate against a medical practitioner because the 15 medical practitioner discloses information that the medical 16 practitioner reasonably believes evidences:

17       1. A violation of any law, rule, or regulation;

18       2. A violation of any standard of care or ethical guidelines 19 for the provision of any health care service; or 20       3. Gross mismanagement, a gross waste of funds, an abuse of 21 authority, practices or methods of treatment that may put patient 22 health at risk, or a substantial and specific danger to public 23 health or safety.

1 C. Nothing in this section may be construed to exempt a person
2 from any applicable state or federal confidentiality and patient
3 privacy requirements including but not limited to the federal Health
4 Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, 42 U.S.C., 5 Section 1320d et seq.

6 SECTION 6. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
7 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-7281 of Title 63, unless there
8 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

9 A. A professional licensing board or other state agency that 10 grants licensure or certification may not reprimand, sanction, or 11 revoke or threaten to revoke a license, certificate, or registration 12 of a medical practitioner who is licensed or certified by the board 13 or agency for engaging in speech or expressive activity protected 14 under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, unless 15 the board or agency demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence 16 that the medical practitioner's speech was the direct cause of 17 physical harm to a person with whom the medical practitioner had a 18 practitioner-patient relationship within the two (2) years 19 immediately preceding the incident of physical harm.

20 B. 1. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving a 21 complaint that may result in revocation of a medical practitioner's 22 license, certificate, or registration, the board or agency shall 23 provide the medical practitioner with a copy of the complaint.
24

1        2. If the board or agency fails to provide the complaint within 2 fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt, the board or agency shall 3 pay the medical practitioner an administrative penalty of Five 4 Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each week of noncompliance.

5        SECTION 7.        NEW LAW        A new section of law to be codified
6 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-728m of Title 63, unless there
7 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

8        A. It is unlawful to interfere or attempt to interfere with the 9 right not to participate in a health care service or the 10 whistleblower and free speech rights and protections authorized by 11 this act, whether by duress, coercion, or any other means.

12        B. A medical practitioner, health care institution, or health 13 care payor injured by unlawful interference is entitled to:

14        1. Injunctive relief, when appropriate, including but not 15 limited to reinstatement of a medical practitioner to the medical 16 practitioner's previous position, reinstatement of board 17 certification, and relicensure of a health care institution or 18 health care payor;

19        2. Monetary damages for injuries suffered; and 20        3. Reasonable costs and attorney fees.

21        SECTION 8.        NEW LAW        A new section of law to be codified
22 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-728n of Title 63, unless there
23 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

The Insurance Commissioner shall promulgate reasonable and necessary rules concerning the implementation of this act relating to those insurers under its jurisdiction.

SECTION 9. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1-728o of Title 63, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

This act is supplemental to and may not be construed as modifying or limiting the rights and remedies provided in the Freedom of Conscience Act, Section 1-728a et seq. of Title 63 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

SECTION 10. This act shall become effective November 1, 2025.

Passed the House of Representatives the 24th day of March, 2025.

Presiding Officer of the House of Representatives
