16 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

17 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 25 O.S. 2021, Section 106, is 18 amended to read as follows:

19 Section 106. No legal notice, advertisement, or publication of 20 any kind required or provided for by the laws of this state to be 21 published in a newspaper of general circulation shall have force or 22 effect unless published in a legal newspaper of the county in this 23 state. Legal newspapers shall be either:

1 A. PERIODICAL PERMIT NEWSPAPER: A legal newspaper of the 2 county is any newspaper of general circulation which, during a
3 period of one hundred four (104) consecutive weeks immediately prior 4 to the first publication of such notice, advertisement, or 5 publication:

6 1. has maintained a paid general subscription circulation in 7 the county; and

8 2. has been admitted to the United States mails as paid ~~second-~~ 9 ~~class~~ general periodical mail matter; and 10 3. has been continuously and uninterruptedly published in the 11 county.

12 B. NONPERIODICAL PERMIT NEWSPAPER: A legal newspaper of the 13 county is any newspaper of general circulation which, during a
14 period of one hundred four (104) consecutive weeks immediately prior 15 to the first publication of such notice, advertisement or 16 publication:

17 1. Has published a printed issue at least once per week;

18 2. Continuously offers paid subscriptions to the general public 19 and maintains a minimum of two hundred (200) paid print 20 subscriptions to individual verified subscribers, and delivers such 21 subscriptions by verified mail or carrier delivery to paid 22 individual subscribers. The cost of a paid subscription shall 23 exceed a nominal fee including the cost of printing and 24 distribution;

1 3. Has averaged a minimum of twenty-five percent (25%) news 2 content over the preceding 12-month period, and news content shall 3 be content generally found in local news publications, such as 4 general local news relevant to the area the notice is intended to 5 serve, reports of local events and persons, local government 6 proceedings, feature stories, graphics, photographs, letters to the 7 editor or editorial pages. No nonperiodical newspaper shall 8 knowingly carry advertisements which are prohibited by state or 9 federal law;

10 4. Has maintained a known office of publication in the county 11 where the business of the publication can be transacted with the 12 public, and where the public can personally interact or meet with 13 local staff of the publication;

14 5. Has published in the newspaper an annual statement of 15 ownership, management, and circulation in the issue dated nearest 16 October 1 of each year, which shall contain the same information as 17 the United States Postal Form 3526;

18 6. Has conducted an independent audit by a firm recognized by 19 the newspaper industry to verify accuracy of circulation, 20 subscriptions, and content, to confirm the newspaper has met the 21 applicable requirements of this section. Such audit shall be 22 conducted prior to attaining status as a legal newspaper, and 23 annually each year thereafter. Each audit shall be available at no 24 charge to any person upon written request within five (5) business

1 days of the request, or alternatively shall be made available
2 continuously on the newspaper website, if the newspaper has a 3 website;

4 7. Has declared the county of publication which the newspaper 5 shall serve when attaining status as a legal newspaper, and such 6 county of publication cannot be moved from one county to another 7 county after such declaration without meeting the requirements of 8 this section again in full for one hundred four (104) consecutive 9 weeks;

10 8. Prior to attaining status as a newspaper qualified to carry 11 legal notices, the nonperiodical newspaper shall petition the 12 district court in the jurisdiction in which the newspaper seeks to 13 be authorized as a legal newspaper and provide evidence the 14 newspaper has met the requirements required to be designated as a 15 legal newspaper of general circulation in the county. Prior to 16 filing the petition, the nonperiodical newspaper shall publish a 17 notice of intent pursuant to this section, in a newspaper of general 18 circulation in the county, or an adjoining county if no newspaper 19 exists in the county. The court shall review the petition and 20 determine whether the applicant has fully met the qualifications and 21 publication time requirements of Section 106 of Title 25 of the 22 Oklahoma Statutes as applicable, and grant or deny authority for the 23 nonperiodical newspaper to accept legal notice as qualified legal 24 newspaper of general circulation of the county. The court may

1 revoke such authority if the newspaper is determined by the court to 2 have failed to continue to meet the qualifications of Section 106 of 3 Title 25 of the Oklahoma Statutes as applicable;

4 9. Publish on the front page the newspaper title, and publish 5 an identification box in easily read type located in the first five 6 pages in each issue, which shall include the title of the newspaper, 7 known office of publication address including street number and 8 name, city, zip code, county of publication, telephone contact 9 information, email address for the publication, a statement of 10 frequency, information on how to subscribe to the newspaper, the 11 date of publication and volume and issue number of each publication.
12 The date, volume, and issue number may be omitted from the 13 identification box if such information appears on the front page of 14 the newspaper. The identification box may contain any other 15 material the publisher determines will inform the general public of 16 the newspaper policies or deadlines.

17 C. All periodical permit and nonperiodical permit newspapers as 18 defined in subsections A and B of this section also shall:

19 1. Register and maintain registration of the ownership of the 20 newspaper with the Oklahoma Secretary of State;

21 2. Publish all legal notices on the newspaper website in a 22 timely manner, if the newspaper maintains a website, in front of any 23 paywall or paid access so the public may freely access the notices 24 published. Notices posted on the publication website shall, at 1 minimum, be maintained for public viewing for the time period the 2 notice is required to be run in the printed newspaper;

3 3. When notice by publication in a newspaper is required by 4 law, order of court, or other means, the newspaper publishing the 5 notice shall in a timely manner, at no additional cost to the person 6 of official desiring the publication, cause the notice to be placed 7 on the statewide website established and maintained as a joint 8 venture of a majority of Oklahoma newspapers qualified as legal 9 newspapers under the laws of this state;

10 4. Shall publish a promotional ad in each issue in which public 11 notices appear promoting notices in the local newspaper, on the 12 local newspaper website, if any, and on the statewide website 13 described in paragraph 3;

14 5. Archive printed issues containing legal notices for a 15 minimum of three (3) years;

16 6. Shall be independent of government and shall not be owned, 17 controlled, funded, or subsidized by any political party, state 18 agency, political subdivision, fraternal or religious organization, 19 or other party which is not independent of government.

20 D. A legal newspaper of the county is qualified to be a legal 21 newspaper in only one county in which the periodical permit 22 newspaper original entry periodicals mail permit was applied for and 23 held, or in the county in which the nonperiodical permit newspaper 24 declared when beginning as a nonperiodical permit newspaper under

1 subsection B of this section. Each legal newspaper must annually 2 declare in the published statement of ownership, management and 3 circulation on October 1 if they are publishing as a periodical 4 permit or nonperiodical permit newspaper for the succeeding year, as 5 defined in this section, and shall continue to be authorized under 6 that declaration for a period of one year, and cannot change such 7 declaration until October 1 each year.

8 E. If there is no legal newspaper in a county, then all legal 9 notices, advertisements, or publications of any kind required or 10 provided for by the laws of this state shall be published in a legal 11 newspaper in an adjoining county of this state, which newspaper has 12 general circulation in the county or political subdivision in which 13 such notice is required. If there is no legal newspaper in a 14 county, a newspaper can be established by meeting the provisions of 15 this section after a period of fifty-two (52) consecutive and 16 uninterrupted weeks in a twelve (12) month period.

17 F. Nothing in this section shall invalidate the publication of 18 such legal notices, advertisements, or publications in a newspaper 19 which has moved its place of publication from one location in the 20 county to another location in the same county without breaking the 21 continuity of its regular issues for the requisite length of time, 22 or the name of which may have been changed when said change of 23 location was made as permitted by United States postal laws and 24 regulations or the laws of the State of Oklahoma.

1 G. Failure to issue or publish said newspaper for a period of 2 ~~fourteen (14) days~~ twenty-one (21) consecutive days, beginning the 3 day after the last publication, due to fire, accident, natural 4 disaster, national health emergency declared by the state or federal 5 government or other unforeseen cause, or by reason of the pendency 6 of mortgage foreclosure, attachment, execution, or other legal 7 proceedings against the ~~type~~ equipment, presses, or other personal 8 property used by the newspaper, shall not be deemed a failure to 9 maintain continuous and consecutive publication as required by the 10 provisions of this section, nor shall said failure invalidate the 11 publication of a notice otherwise valid. Failure to issue or 12 publish a newspaper qualified to publish legal notices, 13 advertisements, or publications of any kind, for a period totaling 14 not more than fourteen (14) consecutive days during a calendar year 15 shall not be deemed a failure to maintain continuous and consecutive 16 publication as required by the provisions of this section, nor shall 17 said failure invalidate the publication of a notice otherwise valid.

18 H. A newspaper is permitted to publish fifty (50) of the 19 preceding fifty-two (52) weeks over the immediately previous twelve 20 (12) month period, and failure to issue or publish a newspaper under 21 this publication schedule for a period totaling not more than 22 fourteen (14) consecutive days during a calendar year shall not be 23 deemed a failure to maintain continuous and consecutive publication

1 as required by the provisions of this section, nor shall said
2 failure invalidate the publication of a notice otherwise valid.

3 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2025.
